7. Visa and documents

Two visas are needed: the UK Standard Visitor visa and a Schengen visa (applied through Italy). Start collecting documents now.

Document	What is needed
Timing	UK visa: apply from about 17 Jan 2027 (max 3 months before); decision usually 3 weeks after biometrics. Schengen: apply to Italy (longest stay) between Jan and early Mar 2027 (max 6 months, min 15 days before); normally 15 days, up to 45. Do UK first, then Schengen.
Passport	Current passport + previous passports if any. Print the first and last pages, plus pages with travel history (black & white is fine). Valid 3+ months beyond 3 May 2027 and 2 blank pages.
Photos	Schengen visa photos, 35 mm × 45 mm, white background, matte or glossy, no spectacles, 2 copies. Do not bring ordinary passport-size photos.
Income Tax Return (ITR-V)	Personal or company ITR-V acknowledgement for the last 3 financial years (FY 2023-24, 2024-25, 2025-26). Balance sheet not needed.
Bank statement	Personal or company account, last 3 months, sealed and signed by the bank. Minimum balance about ₹3 lakh per person.
Salary slips	Last 3 months (employees).
Covering letter	On company letterhead, or plain paper if there is none, signed by the sponsor (self, spouse or company). Add an explanation letter with proof for any sudden large deposit.
Leave letter	From the employer, if working.
Certificate of incorporation	If travelling on company funds or showing company ITR-V and bank statements: company registration or GST registration certificate.
Provided by organisers at the biometric office	Covering letter from Goldenavatar Ventures Pvt Ltd for the group, its ITR-V (3 years), 3-month sealed bank statement and incorporation letter, travel insurance (must cover the UK too), hotel confirmations, flight tickets, the filled visa application form.
UK visa specifics	£135 Standard Visitor visa, issued as an eVisa linked to the passport (each yatri creates a UKVI account). No UK ETA needed with a visa. Keep a scan of every Schengen document; most are reused.

8. Practical information

Topic	Details
Weather in late April	15–21 °C by day, 6–11 °C at night, rain on 3–5 days in 11. Titisee mornings near freezing. Titlis summit −2 to −7 °C with snow. Sunset 20:00–21:00.
Currency	UK: GBP (£). France, Belgium, Netherlands, Germany, Italy, Vatican: EUR (€). Switzerland: CHF (EUR widely accepted at a poor rate). A multi-currency forex card plus a little cash in each.
Power plugs	UK: Type G (3-pin). Europe: Type C/F (2 round pins). Switzerland: Type J (Type C fits). Carry a universal adapter and a power bank.
Mobile & data	An international roaming pack or a Europe + UK eSIM. Switzerland is often excluded from EU packs, so check. Make WhatsApp the group channel.
Time zones	UK = IST − 4 h 30 m (BST). France to Italy = IST − 3 h 30 m (CEST).
Emergency numbers	UK 999 / 112; EU and Switzerland 112. Indian High Commission London +44 20 7836 8484 (verify); Indian embassies in Paris, Brussels, The Hague, Berlin, Bern and Rome (save their numbers before departure).
Senior-citizen care	Seats near the front, wheelchair booking at the Louvre, Vatican and airports, extra rest stops, a medicine pouch with prescriptions, an attendant ratio of 1:10, lifts used wherever available.

Water & toilets	Tap water is drinkable in the UK, France, Switzerland and most of Italy. Public toilets often charge €0.50–€1; use temple, restaurant and museum toilets.
Shopping & VAT refund	Paris: perfumes and fashion; Switzerland: chocolates, watches, cuckoo clocks (Titisee); Italy: leather (Florence), Murano glass (Venice). Ask for a tax-free form and get it stamped at Malpensa customs before check-in.

Things to be aware of

Topic	What to expect	How we handle it
Vatican day has no backup	Vatican Museums are closed on 1 May and on Sundays, so Fri 30 April is the only day. It depends on two high-speed trains.	Book the 11:00 group slot early. Watch the Italian strike register from mid-April (strikes are announced 10–12 days ahead). Backup: coach Mestre → Rome (6 h) with an overnight in Rome.
First EU biometric check (EES) at Dover	Every yatri gives fingerprints and a photo at first Schengen entry (live since 10 Apr 2026). Coach queues of 1–2 h have been reported.	Arrive at Dover 2 h before sailing; book a later sailing as fallback; passports and visa copies in hand.
Two Ekadasis on travel days	Kamada Ekadasi on 17 Apr (outbound flights) and Varuthini Ekadasi on 2 May (flights home).	Pre-order fruit meals (FPML); carry Ekadasi snacks; grain-free hotel dinner on 17 Apr; break fast in London 05:59–10:40 on 18 Apr and in India before ~10:00 on 3 May.
Cold and wet spring weather	London 7–15 °C with showers; Black Forest near 0 °C at night; Titlis summit about −5 °C in snow; Italy 10–21 °C.	Warm jacket, thermal layer, gloves and cap for Titlis; umbrellas; non-slip shoes.
Holidays and events	1 May Labour Day in Italy (Florence/Pisa crowds); French presidential election 18 Apr and 2 May; Keukenhof and Zaanse Schans busy on Saturday.	Pre-book all timed entries; go early; avoid political rallies in Paris.
Central London coach rules	Coaches cannot enter Soho or Covent Garden, cannot wait at Buckingham Gate, The Mall or outside attractions; ULEZ (Euro VI coach) and the Congestion Charge apply.	Coach operator to pre-book coach bays (TfL coach parking map), use set-down/pick-up points in the timetable, and keep the group to time at every pick-up (the coach cannot wait).
Pickpockets	London (Changing of the Guard crowd, Covent Garden), Paris (Eiffel, Louvre, Métro), Rome (Trevi, Colosseum, Termini station), Venice crowds.	Neck pouches, zipped bags worn in front, passports in the hotel safe except on ticket days, buddy system.
Satvik food availability	Most restaurants use onion and garlic; few Indian restaurants in small towns.	Written no-onion/no-garlic menus; temple prasadam on 5 meals; packed lunches on 2 days; carry ready meals and dry snacks.
Senior citizens' stamina	Long walks (Louvre, Vatican, Venice), steps (Pisa, Venice bridges), altitude (Titlis), the 05:00–22:30 Rome day.	Wheelchairs at museums, a rest option in Florence on Day 14, slow group with an assistant, pre-departure medical check.
Visas and biometrics	UK visa can be applied for only 3 months before travel; Schengen up to 6 months before. Passports are held during processing.	UK first (mid-to-late Jan 2027), then Schengen via Italy (by late Feb / early Mar 2027).
Lost passport or luggage	12 hotels in 15 nights.	Group luggage tags, a daily luggage count, scans of passports and visas, Indian embassy contacts.

9. Do's and don'ts

Do

- Carry your passport, visa and insurance card on travel days; keep a photocopy separately.
- Be at the coach 5 minutes before the departure time announced.
- Wear comfortable walking shoes already broken in; 10,000–15,000 steps on city days.
- Dress modestly for churches and the Vatican: shoulders and knees covered, no caps inside.
- Keep a small day-bag: water, cap, sunscreen, umbrella, light jacket, medicines, chargers.
- Pre-inform the tour manager of medical conditions and dietary needs.
- Use the buddy system; keep your phone on and charged (power bank).
- Respect temple etiquette abroad: shoes off, no photos of deities where asked, offer a donation if you wish.
- Keep coins of EUR and CHF for toilets (often €0.50–€1).
- Ask for VAT refund forms on purchases over the minimum (varies by country).
- Drink plenty of water, especially in Italy.
- Keep the coach clean; take your waste with you.

Don't

- Don't carry valuables or large amounts of cash in back pockets or open bags.
- Don't sign petitions or accept 'free' bracelets or roses from strangers (common scams).
- Don't wander off alone; never leave the group without telling the tour manager.
- Don't bring banned food items from India (meat, dairy, fresh fruit and vegetables into the UK/EU). Packaged food is mostly fine; declare it if in doubt.
- Don't climb the Leaning Tower or do the Titlis Cliff Walk if you have heart, BP or knee problems.
- Don't take photos in the Sistine Chapel or where signs prohibit it.
- Don't eat in the coach unless permitted by the driver; no hot food.
- Don't block the bus aisle or leave bags in the stairwell.
- Don't buy from street sellers near monuments (counterfeit goods; fines in Italy and France for buyers).
- Don't overstay your visa or lose your stamps; keep boarding passes until home.
